

On the occasion of International Women's Day 2013

A seminar entitled Women's Media in Lebanon between concept and practice

Dr El kak participated in a panel on how to address about woman's health in media.

He emphasized the need to look at woman perception of her health.

A specialized health media staff analysis of health initiative:

Destigmatization of health constructs and over medicalization.

